

Year after year,
the University of Wisconsin–Madison is near the top of all the lists:

#1

Hottest big state school

#1

Total research expenditures
among U.S. public universities

#1

For producing volunteers for the Peace Corps

#2

Number of doctorates granted
among U.S. public universities

#8

America's Best Colleges among public institutions

#14

Kiplinger's 100 best values in public colleges

In all we do, we are guided by the Wisconsin Idea, that what is learned and discovered on campus should benefit the state and beyond, from work in agriculture and the arts to engineering and life-saving medical advances.
